Description and History

Appropriations from this fund code include group health and life benefits (AS 39.30.090) and the supplemental health and life insurance benefits offered to employees upon the State's withdrawal from Social Security on January 1, 1980 (AS 39.30.160). The State of Alaska contributes to the Supplemental Benefits System in lieu of contributions to the federal Social Security system.

Effective July 1, 1997, the State began a self-insurance program to provide health care coverage for state employees covered by the retirement programs administered by the State. The Group Health and Life Benefits Fund consists of accumulated assets withheld from payroll and invested for the purpose of paying health care and life insurance claims related to active state employees and accounts for transactions pertaining to the self-insurance program.

Retiree Health Insurance is a separate fund (See 1142 Retiree Health Insurance Fund/Major Medical and 1143 Retiree Health Insurance Fund/Long-Term Care).

Prior to FY98, investment fees for the management of the principal of these funds were not included in the Legislative Finance budget system.
